SAUL EWING LLP PARTNER HONORED AS MEMBER OF MS LEADERSHIP CLASS OF 2009

(Philadelphia, PA, October 5, 2009) – Katayun I. Jaffari, a Partner in the Business Department and Co-Chair of the Firm’s Corporate Governance Practice Group, was recently honored as a member of the MS Leadership Class of 2009 for the Greater Delaware Valley Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The National MS Society established the MS Leadership Class concept to encourage local business and civic leaders to join the movement to create a world free of MS. Members are asked to raise a minimum of $1,000 minimum to help find a cure for multiple sclerosis. The MS Leadership Class honors corporate executives for their contributions to the civic, business and cultural betterment of the Greater Delaware Valley area.

In appreciation of their efforts, the MS Leadership Class Honorees were honored at an award reception in Philadelphia hosted by Pat Croce, the honorary chair of the program. In addition, these individuals were featured in a special insert in the Philadelphia Business Journal.

Jaffari earned her Bachelor’s, summa cum laude, and Master’s, with honors, degrees, in Business Administration from Temple University and her law degree from The George Washington University School of Law. She is admitted to practice law in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.
