SAUL EWING LLP PARTNER TO SPEAK AT WELLS FARGO BREAKFAST MEETING ON ISSUES FACING FAMILY-OWNED BUSINESSES

(Philadelphia, PA, October 14, 2009) – Robert H. Louis, a Partner and Co-Chair of the Personal Wealth, Estates and Trusts Department, will be a featured speaker on November 3, 2009 for a Wells Fargo-sponsored seminar, “Strategic Positioning of the Family Business and Wealth.”

Louis, along with two other speakers, will discuss how family-owned businesses can balance the competing demands for liquidity, growth and control during times of change. Fellow speakers will be Joseph J. Fahey, National Director for Wells Fargo Business Planning Services, and John Paul Kirwin, III, Founding Partner of Argosy Capital.

The complimentary breakfast seminar will take place from 8:00 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. at the Philadelphia Country Club in Gladwyne, PA.

Louis earned his Bachelor of Science degree, summa cum laude, from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania; his law degree from Harvard Law School, and his LL.M. from Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.
