SAUL EWING LLP ATTORNEY SELECTED TO BE A MEMBER OF THE INAUGURAL CLASS OF THE BIGS SOCIETY

(Harrisburg, PA, December 8, 2009) – The mentoring and community leadership work of Daniel D. Santos, an associate in the Insurance and Health Law practice groups, was recognized December 3, 2009 when he was selected as a founding member of the Big Brothers Big Sisters (BBBS) of the Capital Region BIGS Society.

The BIGS Society, which stands for Building, Investing & Generating Success, was established to recognize outstanding mentors in the community who can help advance the mission of BBBS of the Capital Region by raising funds on behalf of the organization and increasing the number of mentors, particularly male mentors.

Santos mentors a 12-year-old boy who attends Infinity Charter School in the Harrisburg School District. He also serves on the boards of Leadership Harrisburg Area and the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Central Pennsylvania, is a member of the Harrisburg Young Professionals, and is a business mentor under the Harrisburg University Business Mentors Program and an alumni mentor for the Pennsylvania State University - Dickinson School of Law Alumni Mentoring Program.

Santos earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Virginia and his law degree from Penn State Dickinson School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Saul Ewing LLP is a full service law firm with 250 lawyers in nine offices in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, New York and the District of Columbia. The Firm serves businesses throughout the United States and internationally, including recognizable names in corporate America, exciting start-ups and an array of closely held and privately held companies, as well as nonprofits, governmental and educational entities.
