SAUL EWING LLP PARTNER NAMED TO FIRM'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(Wilmington, Delaware, January 26, 2010) — Wendie C. Stabler, co-managing partner of Saul Ewing's Wilmington, DE office, has been elected to the firm's Executive Committee, effective immediately. The seven-attorney committee serves as the firm's managing body.

Ms. Stabler has been practicing law for more than 25 years, concentrating her practice in real estate, zoning and utilities law. She has represented governmental entities, schools, publicly traded companies, utilities, developers, restaurants, private clubs, foundations and private for-profit and nonprofit corporations in complex real estate transactions, including both high-profile development projects and conservation efforts. She is known for building consensus among many varied individuals, organizations, governmental entities and community stakeholders to achieve common objectives.

Ms. Stabler has been designated a "Delaware Super Lawyer" by Philadelphia magazine and Law and Politics magazine; has been named to "The Best Lawyers in America" list every year since 2006, and has been recognized as one of "America's Leading Lawyers in Real Estate" by Chambers USA since 2004.

Within the community, Ms. Stabler is active in business and charitable organizations, including as former chair of the New Castle County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and as past chair of the New Castle County Economic Development Council. She received her B.A. from Tufts University, magna cum laude, and her J.D. from Emory University School of Law. She will serve a five-year term on the Executive Committee.

Saul Ewing LLP is a full service law firm with 250 lawyers in nine offices in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, New York and the District of Columbia. The Firm serves businesses throughout the United States and internationally, including recognizable names in corporate America, exciting start-ups and an array of closely held and privately held companies, as well as nonprofits, governmental and educational entities.
