EXPERIENCED LITIGATOR DOREEN M. ZANKOWSKI JOINS SAUL EWING

(Boston, MA, October 19, 2011) – Saul Ewing LLP is pleased to announce that Doreen M. Zankowski has joined the firm as a partner in the Litigation Department, resident in the firm’s Boston, MA office. She will be a member of the Real Estate, Construction, Insurance, Environment and Natural Resources and Higher Education practice groups.

Zankowski is an experienced litigator and transactional/contracts attorney who focuses her practice on construction, engineering, business, real estate development and environmental law. She brings to Saul Ewing extensive experience navigating the legal and regulatory process necessary to bring construction and remediation projects to fruition. In addition, she is adept at handling transactional matters and facilitating contractual arrangements and business structures.

"Doreen is a savvy and strategic attorney who has had significant experience representing clients invested in complex development projects," said Joseph F. O’Dea, Jr., chair of the Litigation Department. "Whether it is building a bridge, tunnel or highway, a wastewater plant, an airport, or a university campus or medical facility project, Doreen’s track record shows she gets the job done to advance her client’s goals. We are excited that she is now a member of the Saul Ewing family."

Zankowski received her law degree, cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School and her Master’s Degree in Public Finance from Boston University. She earned her bachelor’s degree, cum laude, from Regis College. She is admitted to practice in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the State of New York, and before the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and U.S. Bankruptcy Court.

Most recently, Zankowski was a partner at Hinckley Allen Snyder LLP where she served as practice and deputy practice group leader of the Construction & Public Contracts Law Group.
