Lori R. Hartglass is a partner in Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr's Fort Lauderdale office. She is a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Her responsibilities and experience have included all legal aspects of financing, construction, acquisition and sales on projects throughout the United States, including shopping centers, malls, luxury condominiums, condominium hotels, office buildings and hotels. She is lead outside counsel for a monumental shopping and entertainment center planned for Miami-Dade County, Florida. Lori represented the developer a luxury condominium in the largest construction loan transaction at the time for the southeast United States since the real estate recession. She represented another major developer in its $248.9 million financing transaction for renovation of an iconic resort. She also serves as local counsel to out-of-state and international law firms.

Prior to joining Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr, Lori was associate general counsel for a premier real estate developer. Prior to this, she was a partner at a national law firm.
