John Turner has practiced in Southeast Florida since 1993. He practices primarily in state and federal courts, with an emphasis on commercial leasing litigation, including CAM disputes, nuisance claims, FF&E damage claims and actions for possession. His practice also encompasses litigation relating to real property sales, corporate and partnership disputes and intellectual property rights. He also defends institutional clients against personal injury claims based upon products and premises liability theories and maritime law. John commonly represents retailers, product manufacturers and distributors, financial institutions, contractors, shipping companies and recreational boating clubs.
