INDUSTRIES

Real Estate

David Yontz focuses his practice on commercial real estate law, including acquisitions, dispositions, development and leasing. David has experience drafting, reviewing and negotiating leases and related agreements for office and retail premises on behalf of both landlords and tenants. He has also drafted and negotiated purchase and sale agreements for the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate. David regularly performs significant due diligence in connection with the transactions he handles, such as title, survey and environmental review.

David's experience includes serving as Real Estate Counsel for one of the largest privately held developers of destination centers in America. In that capacity, David drafted and negotiated hundreds of retail leases for regional and super-regional shopping centers.
