

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

- Negotiated transaction and conducted due diligence on behalf of large French telecommunications company to acquire U.S. telecommunications company
- Served as special government contracts and due diligence counsel to large publicly traded company in connection with its $45 million acquisition of the vaccines business of a division of a privately owned company in Manchester, England.
- Served as due diligence counsel for international company in a competitive auction process for the $1 billion acquisition of global engineering company