Resources

Lisa Reves focuses on legal matters involving land use and zoning, real estate and property law and litigation. Her experience includes performing due diligence and handling negotiations. She also prepares zoning text amendments, deeds and other land use-related contracts and documents. In addition, she has assisted with environmental assessments and negotiated an ocean access easement involving the Town of Palm Beach, Florida.

Lisa's law practice builds on her experience prior to attending law school. As a project manager for a landscape architecture and planning firm, she led the design, planning and management of multiple large-scale residential, commercial, industrial and institutional developments through to approval.
