SAUL EWING ATTORNEYS PARTICIPATE IN FIRST ANNUAL MINORITY RETREAT

(Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, October 13, 2005) –Nearly 30 Saul Ewing LLP attorneys gathered at the Firm’s first annual Minority Attorney Retreat in Ellicott City, Maryland on September 23 to discuss effective business development and networking from the minority attorney’s perspective. Featured speakers were Stephen S. Aichele, the Firm’s Managing Partner, and Veta T. Richardson, executive director for the Minority Corporate Counsel Association.

“It was a productive and rewarding day where many innovative ideas were shared among the participants,” said Karen Jackson Vaughn, Saul Ewing’s Diversity Program Manager. “We met all of our goals for the day, and then some. It will be the first of many such get-togethers.”
