

Thaddeus J. Tracy – Thaddeus is a founding partner of Farmers Gate, LLC, a platform investing in sustainable specialty crop production assets and related midstream operations. Farmers Gate employs a thematic approach focused on target regions, directly connecting food industry partners with sustainable specialty crop supply. Prior to founding Farmers Gate, Thaddeus was the Chief Legal Officer for Teays River Investments, a permanent capital vehicle focused on capitalizing best-in-class agricultural production businesses. As Chief Legal Officer, Thaddeus was actively engaged in strategy, risk management and sustainability issues for the business and was responsible for all legal issues affecting the company and its investments. Prior to joining Teays, Thaddeus was a partner in the New York office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP. He began his career at Davis Polk & Wardwell after completing a federal clerkship with the Honorable Kevin Thomas Duffy in the Southern District of New York. Thaddeus holds a J.D. degree from Fordham School of Law and a B.A. from Columbia University.