Saul Ewing LLP on Wednesday, March 27, announced the addition of Zev Shechtman as a partner in its bankruptcy and restructuring practice.

Los Angeles-based Shechtman arrives from Danning, Gill, Israel & Krasnoff LLP, where he began his legal career in May 2008 as a law clerk. He was elevated to partner in January 2018.

According to Saul Ewing, Shechtman represents debtors, creditors, trustees, distressed asset buyers, equity holders and contract parties in Chapter 11 and Subchapter V proceedings.

Shechtman was debtor counsel when real estate manager and appraiser Elite Investment Management Group LLC opted for Chapter 11 in September. He filled the same role in December 2020 for Airport Van Rental Inc., and that October, he represented Float Alaska LLC in its purchase of assets of Ravn Air Group Inc. when the Alaska-focused bankrupt airline sought a buyer for its assets.

Shechtman received his B.A. from the University of California, Santa Cruz in 2003 and his M.A. from New York University in 2006. He went on to earn his J.D. from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law in 2009.
