

Saul Ewing Adds Lussier

The Deal

Conner Searfoss

May 3, 2024

[\[Link\]](#)

Boston-based Donald Lussier joins the firm for a second stint following nine years with Pierce Atwood.

Saul Ewing LLP on Tuesday, April 30, announced the addition of Donald G. Lussier as a partner in its Boston office.

Lussier joins the firm from Pierce Atwood LLP, where he arrived in May 2015 following his first stint as a partner with Saul Ewing. Before that, Lussier spent more than two years as a partner with Dionne & Gass LLP and was general counsel to real estate management and investment company Sawyer Realty Holdings LLC.

According to Saul Ewing, Lussier represents sponsors, investors and lenders in acquisitions, leasing matters and financing matters. His casework experience includes transactions involving a variety of asset types, including multifamily, office, parks, industrial buildings, medical facilities and hospitality properties, among others

Lussier received his B.A. from Boston University in 1991. He went on to earn his J.D. from Hofstra University in 1994.