PARTNER ROBERT H. LOUIS ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT OF SPRING GARDEN SOUP SOCIETY

(Philadelphia, PA, December 5, 2014) — Saul Ewing LLP, a full service law firm with more than 270 lawyers in 11 East Coast offices, is proud to announce that Partner Robert H. Louis has been elected Vice President of the Spring Garden Soup Society.

Since 1952, the Spring Garden Soup Society has aided needy families in Philadelphia, most recently through the support of homeless shelters and soup kitchens. Their mission has attracted broad financial support from individual donors as well as the city's business community.

Louis is co-chair of the Firm’s Personal Wealth, Estates and Trusts Practice. In addition to his busy practice, Louis is a dedicated professional and community service volunteer.

Louis earned his Bachelor of Science degree, summa cum laude, from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania; his law degree from Harvard Law School, and his LL.M. from Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.
